

Student Conduct Agreement

Your application for admission indicates your agreement to abide by BBC's regulations as detailed in the current catalog and the Student Handbook. This is not negotiable, and failure to comply may result in administrative probation and/or dismissal from the College.

Application for admission from someone with such orientation may be considered following an interview with the Dean of Students, repentance before God, and a stated willingness to forsake the homosexual lifestyle.