BBC's Institutional Goals Drive Program Objectives

Objectives

All Bachelor of Science degrees are designed to help you achieve several goals:

1. As a student, you will gain a broad working knowledge of your world and be able to effectively interact with it.
2. As a Christian, you will be able to wrestle with complex theological issues, be able to accurately exegete the Bible, and be better able to make the appropriate applications of the Word to your personal life and in the church. You will be challenged to have a self-sustaining and growing passion to know God, to pursue personal holiness, and to promote the growth and health of Christ's church.
3. As a leader, you will gain a particular expertise sufficient for entry-level professional church ministries, or entry into a graduate seminary program, be able to effectively communicate God's truth to our world, and be prepared to demonstrate servant leadership.
